Incredible Brutality.

It would have been incredible brutality if Charles E. Lemberger of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers too. Overwork Killing Us

In the Great Struggle for Wealth and Position We Are Becoming Weaker Than Our Forefathers.

By the cares of business and social life we use up or waste away the most vital elements of the human body before we realize our weak and run down condition. It seizes on us so quietly at first that little or no attention is paid to the symptoms, which commence with a queer, bewildering sensation in the head, later the power to concentrate the thoughts, so necessary to brain workers, is lost. Following this will come deficient sight or blurred vision, muscular weakness and a dull pain in the small of the back. There is a tendency to tire easily; the digestion becomes impaired; the temper irritable; spirits depressed, ending in complete lack of confidence and a general feeling of disgust at our own weakness. When the blood and nerve forces have been wasted by disease, overwork, worry, brain-tire, high living, dissipation or other bad habits, Dr. Chase's Blood and Nerve Food rebuilds the system by replacing the same substances that have been lost. Price 50 cents. Sold and guaranteed by E. A. Drown.

Rifle Competition in Co. B.

St. Albans, March 31.—Co. B, 1st Inf., V. N. G., is making preparations for rifle practice with a view to holding the Centennial cup that the company won in the annual Vermont National Guard rifle competition last year. Two teams of twelve men each have been chosen to take part in a competition on the sub-target gun about the middle of April. First Sergeant Miller is captain of the "Blues" and Sergeant Sisco of the "Browns." The object of the competition is to stimulate interest in rifle practice in the company generally, both with regard to this incidental trophy. The prize to be contested for in this team match is to be a supper to be served in the armory and paid for by the losing team.
